++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mainly dry and warm with bright spells.

Today:
Low cloud will clear from most places in the morning but may linger near the coasts. Otherwise a mainly dry day with bright intervals and few isolated showers. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Tonight:
Showers dying out in the evening then dry with clear spells for a time. Thicker cloud and outbreaks of rain will spread north across all parts after midnight. Minimum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Saturday:
A mostly cloudy day. A lot of dry weather but also a few showers in places. Feeling warm inland but fresher along the east coast with a light southeasterly breeze. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
More unsettled than of late with showers or longer spells of rain, heavy and perhaps thundery at times. Still feeling warm in any sunshine with mainly light winds.
